

May 4-5

Trish McKinney

Party on Your Paper-Painting on Delicious Prepared Surfaces!

Mixed Media-Watercolor, Acrylics, Collage

Workshop Description

Who doesn't love to have complete freedom and fun painting? Using seemingly random, deliciously colorful, and wildly patterned gel printed papers is a recipe for FUN - painting on top of them is a party on your paper! Learn the exciting process of how Trish creates "prepared surfaces" and then paints on top of them. Students will learn the concepts of negative painting, lost and found edges, and color theory all in one class!

Now...who wants to party?!

To see more examples go to www.trishmckinney.com/preparedsurfaces Check out Trish's YouTube channel to see how paints: www.youtube.com/trishmckinney

Artist Statement

I am a Teacher - passionate to inspire and connect everyone to the creator within themselves.

I am a Painter - constantly curious and experimental, thinking outside the box, and always asking "what if".

I am a Dreamer - who steps into my dreams and makes them a reality.

I am a Believer - living my life expectantly and abundantly - thinking "as if" it has already happened.

I am an Artist.

"I shut my eyes in order to see" is one of the artist's favorite quotes because it reminds her of how inspiration begins — dreaming.